

Allied Health Conference #WeCareTogether

2022 NEWCASTLE, CENTRAL COAST & TAMWORTH

Join us for the Primary Health Network's first Allied Health Conference to be held on 24th May 2022. The #WeCareTogether conference will provide an opportunity for collaboration and sharing learnings with others from the allied health sector to improve patient outcomes.

Our presenters will showcase models of best practice and demonstrate practical quality improvement ideas that can be applied broadly across allied health professions to enhance person-centred care.

The conference will be livestreamed for those who prefer to join online.

Attendees will earn up to 7 hours towards CPD (an attendance certificate will be provided).

WHEN Tuesday 24th May 2022, 9.00 am – 5.00 pm

WHO Allied Health professionals, practice staff and clinicians working in the allied health sector within the Hunter, New England and Central Coast regions

WHERE Choose from one of three face-to-face locations (numbers are limited)

- Newcastle: Noah's on the Beach Hotel
- Central Coast: Mingara Club
- Tamworth: Powerhouse Hotel by Rydges

COST $30.00 – in person attendance, includes catering | $10.00 – online attendance

RSVP Please click here to register

We are delighted to have Luke Escombe as our Master of Ceremonies for the conference. Luke is an acclaimed speaker, health advocate, songwriter and comedian who has turned 20 years of living with a chronic illness into inspiration for his art. Read more about Luke

Are you living in a rural location and plan to attend in person? You may be eligible for a Health Workforce Scholarship. For details see NSW Rural Doctors Network Health Workforce Scholarship Program. (Note: applications close 15th May 2022 for current financial year)

For further information about the #WeCareTogether conference please contact the PHN Allied Health team via email at alliedhealth@thephn.com.au or phone 1300 859 028.