

General Practice Close Out Snapshot

$9.5 million

funding dispersed to 361 general practices through Strengthening Medicare Grants Program

580 GPs, nurses, practice staff & Allied Health Professionals trained in domestic violence identification and referral

2,500+

focused reports to General Practices (including Diabetes, Cervical screening, Cardiovascular Disease, Mental Health, Chronic Kidney Disease, and First nations health)

Investigated, developed and implemented alternative primary care workforce models to provide care in regions with limited workforce

5,000+ Quality Improvement Practice Incentive claims submitted on behalf of General Practices and

5,800+ clinical data summary dashboards generated

The GP Relocation Program awarded 20 Recruitment Starter Grants to 20 General Practices and 9 incentive grants to 8 General Practices

6,000+ health pathways established to improve service navigation for referring Clinicians resulting in

854,000+ page views on Hunter New England and Central Coast HealthPathways

8000 Health professionals participated in 370 professional education events in the 2022-2023 financial year

300+ average PIP QI claims are submitted quarterly on behalf of General Practices in the region

Supported General Practices across the region to achieve accreditation, increasing the percentage of accredited practices in the region to

91%

958 patients, 219 GPs and 105 General Practices participated in Diabetes Alliance face-to-face case conferences at GP clinics