

Lunch & Learn for Allied Health: Working with Multicultural Communities, TIS, Disabilities and NDIS

PHN EDUCATION
SESSION

PRIMARY HEALTH NETWORK

This session will explain the changes to TIS (Translating Interpreter Service) in the New England region and how to register your practice for TIS. We will then explore the pathways available for Allied Health Professionals in the assisting of clients accessing NDIS, Carers pensions etc and the often unknown and untapped assistance available from Services Australia.

Please join us for this Lunch and Learn session to meet your DFV Local LINK and explore:

- How to register your practice for TIS and be TIS ready
- Pathways for servicing disability clients
- How to link in with Services Australia Multicultural Officers to expediate pathways for clients

SPEAKERS: Kristyn Barker - Practice Manager of Armidale Podiatry.

Kristyn has a strong primary health background having also worked in General Practice as a Practice Manger. Kristyn has recently registered Armidale Podiatry for TIS (Translating Interpreter Service) a free service newly opened up to Allied Health Professionals in the New England region as a 5 year pilot program.

Matthew Teece – Multicultural Services Officer Services Australia.
