

Medications in Antenatal care for Central Coast GPs

CCLHD / PHN EDUCATION SESSION

Please join us for an informative webinar as we discuss the guidelines on Hyperemesis medications. This will be an interactive session with the opportunity for Questions and Answers.

Dr Penelope Fotheringham will also cover medications in pregnancy and lactation and sourcing the correct information on medications in the patients antenatal care for Central Coast GPs.

The presentation will focus on the following learning objectives:

- Understand medications in Pregnancy and lactation
- Identifying / sourcing correct info on medications in lactation and pregnancy
- New Guidelines on Hyperemesis medications .

SPEAKER: Dr Penelope Fotheringham is a dual trained medical specialist in Obstetrics and Gynaecology and Public Health Medicine who also works as a medical adviser to the Maternity Services in the Central Coast Local Health District. She has been teaching medical students at the University of Sydney since 2010 and also lectures in the Masters of Medicine (Sexual and Reproductive Health).

WHO: Central Coast GPs and registrars

WHEN: Monday 31st October 2022, 6.00 pm – 7.00 pm

WHERE: Online via GoToWebinar

RSVP: Please CLICK HERE to register