

Commissioning Multidisciplinary Teams to Support Small General Practices

PROJECT AIM

The project aims to commission models of care that use multidisciplinary teams (MDTs) to support priority health needs impacting people with chronic diseases in our region.

PROJECT BENEFICIARIES

- Allied Health
- General Practice
- Nurses and Midwives
- Community

IDENTIFIED REGIONAL HEALTH NEEDS

Access

NxIH2 High rates of chronic disease amongst First Nations People

NX2.1 Increase access to services

Nx2.5 Improve integration of services (referral pathways)

NxPH34 Reduced access to services in rural and remote areas

Chronic Disease

Nx6.3 Reduce rates of chronic disease

2023/2024 PROJECT OBJECTIVES

1. To develop and implement commissioned multidisciplinary team services by 30th June 2024.

CLINICAL AND COMMUNITY GUIDANCE REQUIREMENTS

- Allied Health Reference Group.
- Consultation with Clinical Councils and Community Advisory Committees.

PROJECT PARTNERS

- Primary Health Care Providers
- External Stakeholders

RESPONDING TO WHICH STRATEGIC CHALLENGE

Demonstrate exceptional commissioning through leadership and performance.

HNECC PHN PROJECT KEY CONTACTS

Joanna Coutts, Integrated Health Manager and Mitchell Cootes, Manager Primary Care Commissioning