

Mozzies may hibernate in Winter, but you shouldn't.

Protect you and your mob against
Japanese encephalitis virus (JEV).
Get vaccinated today.

Talk to your GP, pharmacist or Aboriginal Medical Service about getting vaccinated against JEV. You can get the JEV vaccine any time of year, ideally 4 weeks before the mosquito season begins (generally in September or October). Most people who are fully vaccinated do not require a booster dose.

For more information, visit health.nsw.gov.au/jevaccine

June 2023 © NSW Health. SHPN (HP NSW) 230370.

